Verse 1:

Em                    Bm                    C                    D
How could You tell me that You love me?
Em Bm                    C                    D
After all I've said and done?
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
You show me peace, love, grace and mercy
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
When to others I've shown none

Verse 2:

Em                    Bm                    C                    D
You tell me that I am forgiven
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
That You remember not my sin
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
From me can they be ever driven?
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
Lord there seem so many things, so many things, so many things

Verse 3:

Em                    Bm                    C                    D
Oh the blood of innocence I've spilt
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
Help me Lord I can't forgive myself
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
I've made my bed with sheets of guilt
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
There's no where else to lay my head

Verse 4:

Em Bm                    C                    D Em Bm                    C D
Into my world You send Your Son – for me – Lord lead me on
Em                    Bm                    C                    D
You take my hand and lead me on – to the Tree
Em Bm                    C                    D
I find my peace with You, yes I do
                  Em Bm                    C D
Thank You,                    thank You
                  Em Bm                    C D
Thank You,                    thank You
